About CarMeet

Connecting car enthusiasts worldwide through unforgettable meetups and experiences

Our Story

CarMeet was born from a simple idea: car enthusiasts deserve a better way to connect, share their passion, and discover amazing automotive events in their area. Founded in 2020 by a group of car lovers who were frustrated with the lack of centralized platforms for automotive meetups, CarMeet has grown into the premier destination for car enthusiasts worldwide. Today, we're proud to serve over 50,000 members across hundreds of cities, facilitating thousands of meetups every month and helping build stronger automotive communities everywhere.

Our Mission

To create the world's most comprehensive platform for car enthusiasts to discover, organize, and participate in automotive events while building lasting friendships through shared passion.

Our Vision

A world where every car enthusiast can easily find their community, share their passion, and experience the joy of automotive culture regardless of location or background.
